TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Caesarea Philippi was an interesting background for Peter's discovery that a wandering teacher from Nazareth, who was heading for a cross, was the Son of God. This location purported to be the source of the Jordan River, the birthplace of the Greek god, Pan, and the center of Baal worship. Crowned by a temple built to the divinity of Caesar, it had references to all of world history and many religious traditions, including that of Israel. It was a place of glittering worldly power.

For Jesus, this was a crucial moment. The opposition was gathering to strike. He asked His disciples about the rumors and reports concerning Him. In this location, did the atmosphere of political and material success and failure obscure His disciples' vision of Him. Were the men among whom He lived and taught and moved still unaware that Jesus was not some nationalistic champion reversing hundreds of years of conquest? Did they even glimpse the presence of God in Him?

Who do YOU say that I am? (breathless silence).
And then Peter said, You are the Messiah, the Christ, the Anointed One, the Son of God.

At Caesarea Philippi, Jesus was sure that His mission had not failed. He had succeeded in revealing God. Unfortunately, His own disciples still didn't grasp that this meant following Jesus and picking up a cross.

Father Ricardo

FROM THE DESK OF FR. RICARDO:

"LET THE LIGHT SHINE"

As we continue work on the stained-glass window project, the main entrance to our Church will be closed on week days. Those attending daily Mass may enter through the hall and go directly to the Chapel through the sacristy for Mass as usual. Until the work is completed the main door of the Church will be closed during the week. This is for the protection of the contractors as well as our parishioners.
